About the relevant parties

About BMAM

BMAM is a diversified Australian asset management group that provides a wealth management offering incorporating active model portfolio services, investment management, capital raising, and full-service stockbroking.

Investment Philosophy

BMAM's investment philosophy is a combination of fundamental and quantitative investment strategies. This blends the best of both fundamental and quantitative investment techniques to produce a best of both worlds approach to investing.

By blending quantitative factor-based research with more traditional fundamental research, clients can benefit from two strategies to generate alpha. Specifically, the approach allows for human judgement to handle qualitative inputs and more subjective analysis, while automating processes that benefit from a more systematic approach, particularly those subject to human biases. In addition, typically the two approaches are most effective at different points in the cycle and on different investment time horizons, so combining them makes consistent alpha delivery more achievable.

Investment Process

BMAM's investment process begins with the quantitative calculation of the expected long term returns on asset classes based on a reversion to long term average prices, margins, and growth rates. These returns are used as a reversion/target points to their asset allocation decisions.

BMAM then attempt to identify value/pricing inconsistencies. Sectors, countries, commodities, or assets where the valuation indicators are inconsistent with prior historical figures and experience. Once identified, BMAM then look to identify the events/themes for pricing to normalise – again with the understanding that it may take several years to revert/normalise.

Once the SAA weights are determined by this process, BMAM will then factor in current economic themes to see these weights require adjustment. BMAM will evaluate the upside potential from strategic positions vs the downside risk if our economic evaluation is incorrect. BMAM will then stress-test portfolio exposures (Value at risk, Conditional Value at Risk) to adverse events and monitor the possibility of those events.

The selection of domestic and global stocks is bottom up, and then top-down analytics is employed to the subsequent portfolios to ensure that the net portfolio weights are appropriate.

How the investment manager manages risk

The investment manager is unable to eliminate all investment risk, but does analyse, manage and aim to reduce the impact of risks by actively monitoring investment markets and portfolios and through the use of carefully considered investment guidelines.

Labour standards and environmental, social and ethical considerations

The Trustee does not take into account labour standards, environmental, social or ethical considerations when making the investments available. The approach in relation to any consideration of labour, environmental, social or ethical standards as part of the investment decision making process for the portfolio is left by the Trustee to the individual discretion of the investment manager. This investment strategy does not directly measure or incorporate labour, environmental, social or ethical standards as part of the investment decision-making process.

The investment manager is aware that these issues can influence social, business and investor outcomes. In certain circumstances they may consider these issues when making an investment decision. The investment manager's consideration of labour, environmental, social or ethical considerations are in its own right and not on behalf of the Trustee.

Execution of strategy

Mason Stevens Limited and its associated entities have been appointed by the Trustee to provide various services in relation to the Fund, including promoter, investment management and custody services. Mason Stevens and the Administrator are responsible for implementing the investment instructions of the investment manager by buying and selling assets, taking into consideration timing, trading costs (such as transaction fees and currency costs, if applicable) and the mandate of the portfolio. In certain circumstances Mason Stevens has the right to vary the Investment Option. By investing in this Investment Option, you instruct Mason Stevens and the Administrator to buy and sell assets on your behalf through the Investment Option as advised by the investment manager.

Risks

Before you consider investing in this portfolio, it's important you understand the risks that can affect your investments. A summary of key risks is in the PDS.

See the 'Risks' section in the PDS. Please note this is not an exhaustive list of all the risks. The risks relevant to this portfolio reflect the underlying investments. For information about risks regarding your personal situation, please speak to your adviser.

Trade notifications

When the investment manager trades, or rebalances the portfolios, Mason Stevens (through the Service) may send you an advice notifying you of the trades being undertaken. This is called a trade notification. The rebalance and reallocation of Investment Options may occur regularly and you may receive a trade notification each time a rebalance or reallocation occurs.
