Investment Philosophy

The investment methodology employed by Investment Partners seeks to identify high quality companies that are in a superior position to deliver more stable and reliable returns over the long term.

The priority for the research team is to be open to as many opportunities as possible so that we identify new trends and shifts in existing trends early. Ideas are sourced from external research houses, Bloomberg, inhouse quantitative analysis, and the internal Investment Partner’s research team.

The most compelling opportunities then go through a detailed internal evaluation process. We are looking for quality business that can earn a good return for our investors.

Included in the analysis is The Porter Model’s “five forces” analysis. This is a framework for analysing the level of competition within an industry and how a company is positioned within this competitive environment:

- » Threat of new entrants
- » Threat of substitutes
- » Bargaining power of suppliers
- » Bargaining power of buyers
- » Industry rivalry

We also do a PEST analysis. PEST analysis (Political, Economic, Social and Technological) considers a framework of macro-environmental factors. It is a strategic tool for understanding market growth or decline, business position and direction for operations.

Investment strategy and process

Each Model Portfolio is updated following fundamental analysis and valuation of listed ASX equities. Securities are filtered based on certain quant filters. Final portfolio constituents are selected based on total portfolio risk and return considerations.

Core Investment Principles:

- » IP applies these core principles when managing portfolios.

Quality:

- » High quality businesses typically deliver more stable and predictable outcomes for investors. IP’s research effort is especially focused on the sustainability of the business model, balance sheet strength and management capability.

Net Return:

- » While the gross return on assets is often the centre of attention, it is the net return that investors actually value. Net return is what’s left when all fees, expenses, taxes and inflation have been accounted for. For Investment Partners, as with their clients, net return is IP’s primary focus.

Conviction:

- » Portfolios are constructed purely on the merits of each individual company. IP take high conviction positions in leading businesses that have delivered consistent returns over time.

IP’s investment strategy involves selecting high quality companies and buying and holding them for the long term. Companies are evaluated through a proprietary stock selection process which aims to deliver a more stable and reliable after-tax return for the traditional long-term investor in Australian shares. Additionally, the portfolio is diversified by company, sector and earnings source to reduce risk.

How the investment manager manages risk

The investment manager is unable to eliminate all investment risk, but does analyse, manage and aim to reduce the impact of risks by actively monitoring investment markets and portfolios and through the use of carefully considered investment guidelines.

Labour standards and environmental, social and ethical considerations

The Trustee does not take into account labour standards, environmental, social or ethical considerations when making the investments available. The approach in relation to any consideration of labour, environmental, social or ethical standards as part of the investment decision making process for the portfolio is left by the Trustee to the individual discretion of the investment manager. This investment strategy does not directly measure or incorporate labour, environmental, social or ethical standards as part of the investment decision-making process.

The investment manager is aware that these issues can influence social, business and investor outcomes. In certain circumstances they may consider these issues when making an investment decision. The investment manager's consideration of labour, environmental, social or ethical considerations are in its own right and not on behalf of the Trustee.

Execution of strategy

Mason Stevens Limited and its associated entities have been appointed by the Trustee to provide various services in relation to the Fund, including promoter, investment management and custody services. Mason Stevens and the Administrator are responsible for implementing the investment instructions of the investment manager by buying and selling assets, taking into consideration timing, trading costs (such as transaction fees and currency costs, if applicable) and the mandate of the portfolio. In certain circumstances Mason Stevens has the right to vary the managed portfolio. By investing in this managed portfolio, you instruct Mason Stevens and the Administrator to buy and sell assets on your behalf through the managed portfolio as advised by the investment manager.

Risks

Before you consider investing in this portfolio, it's important you understand the risks that can affect your investments. A summary of key risks is in the PDS.

See the 'Risks' section in the PDS. Please note this is not an exhaustive list of all the risks. The risks relevant to this portfolio reflect the underlying investments. For information about risks regarding your personal situation, please speak to your adviser.

Trade notifications

When the investment manager trades, or rebalances the portfolios, Mason Stevens (through the Service) may send you an advice notifying you of the trades being undertaken. This is called a 'trade notification'. The rebalance and reallocation of managed portfolios may occur regularly and you may receive a trade notification each time a rebalance or reallocation occurs.
